

Jeff has a Bachelors degree in Psychology. He has worked for the Target Corporation for the past 25+ years and currently oversees the Operations and Technology support for Property Development for the company. He also serves as a Master Trainer for the corporation.

Ruth is the President and CEO of Home Improvement Ministries, Inc. She has returned to College and continues her studies toward a degree in Christian Ministries. In addition to her schooling and ongoing research for the ministry, she has been a special speaker for various groups including Mops, Coffee Break and other organizations. She also works part time for the Target Corporation as a Records Coordinator.

Jeff and Ruth believe God has called them to facilitate marriage, individual and family enrichment programs. With the overwhelming statistics, regarding failing marriages in our society, it is their hearts desire to be the tools that God will use to build stronger homes.

Please pray with them that their mission will yield fruit. If you would be interested in being a financial or prayer partner, please contact them.

Parenting with Power

Presented by

Home Improvement Ministries, Inc.

“Dedicated to building stronger relationships”

Mission Statement of Home Improvement Ministries, Inc.

To help individuals better understand their relationships by teaching the processes to make improvements where improvement is needed, or make what is good even better.

Home Improvement Ministries is a tax-exempt non-profit organization devoted to helping individuals, families, and marriages.

Parenting With a Higher POWER

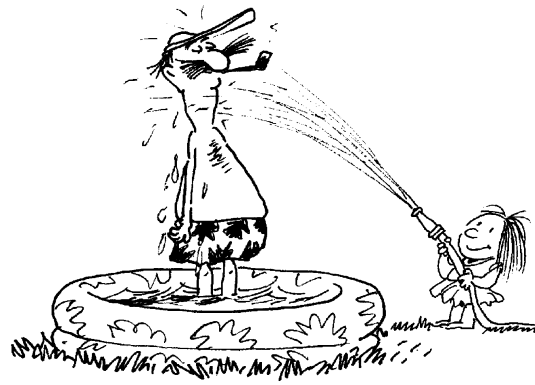

If you feel lost and adrift in trying to raise you kids, you are not alone! The good news is that Parenting With Power will help you learn the skills you need to meet the parenting issues of today.

- Would you like to be able to make your child mind without loosing yours?
- Do you understand parenting – from a biblical perspective?
- Do you feel that you need to spend more time with your family... how do you find the time?
- What is the impact of schools and the media on my children and what can you do about it?
- How should you discipline your kids?
- What boundaries should you be setting?

We will provide Godly insight into Time and Money Management, Drug and Alcohol Use, School, Media Impact, and Boundaries you need to set for your family.

Jeff and Ruth Titus bring not only their personal parenting tips from raising two children of their own, but insights from many years of studying solid Christian experts like; Dr. James Dobson, Tim Kimmel, David Walsh, Ron Luce, Josh McDowell, and Kevin Leman (just to name a few). They have read books, listened to tapes, and attended seminars in preparation for this class. They have blended the very best of the material available to provide you the material you can use to be the best parent possible.

This material is provided in an interactive non-threatening format so you can better understand God's plan for your family.

Here dad, I'll help you fill the pool...
